SMALL BUSINESS DAY NEAR THE BAY

Tuesday, March 14, 2017 • 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.
1275a Hall Avenue at Marina Way South

WANT TO KNOW about the many services that are available to small businesses? Don't miss this unique opportunity to hear from government agencies, service providers and other small businesses.

The UC Berkeley/UC San Francisco Supplier Diversity Program serves diverse businesses across the Bay Area and is partnering with the following agencies to present this program:

- ★ UC Berkeley Local Government and Community Relations Office
- ★ UCSF Community Engagement Unit
- ★ Small Business Administration (SBA)
- ★ Small Business Development Centers (SBDC) of the East Bay
- ★ California Department of General Services (DGS)
- ★ Richmond Chamber of Commerce
- ★ Additional service providers

Berkeley
UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

AGENDA WILL INCLUDE:

- ★ SBA, SBDC and DGS presentations on their business counseling and workshops
- ★ An interview with Bay Systems Inc, which participated in SBA's 8(a) Business Development Program
- ★ Panel discussion on capital and loans with diverse businesses.
- ★ Breakout sessions for businesses to network

LIGHT REFRESHMENTS, coffee and tea will be available when you arrive, as well as a chance to taste offerings from caterers registered through our America To Go (ATG) catering broker. Representatives from ATG also will be present to answer your questions.
